Departments and Programmes of Study

Courses of study

The School of English offers an array of courses, compulsory as well as optional. Selection from a wide variety of subjects allows students to construct their individual programme of study according to their specific interests.

Students can choose courses in the following fields of study: Applied Linguistics, Theoretical Linguistics, English Literature and Culture, American Literature and Culture, Translation and Intercultural Studies. In the Course Descriptions included in this guide, courses offered by the Department of Theoretical and Applied Linguistics are marked as 'Ling', those offered by the two Literature Departments are marked as 'Lit' and those offered by the Department of Translation and Intercultural Studies are marked as 'TIS'. In addition to the field descriptor, each course has a four-digit code number. The first digit indicates the general area as follows:

Ling 1: English Language
Ling 2: Theoretical Linguistics
Ling 3: Applied Linguistics
Ling 4: Interdisciplinary Linguistics
Ling 5: Research in Linguistics

Lit 5: Introductory Courses in Literature
Lit 6: English Literature and Culture
Lit 7: American Literature and Culture
Lit 9: Theory of Literature, Research in Literature and Theatre Workshop

TIS 1: Introductory Course
TIS 2: Theoretical and Applied Course
TIS 3: Practical Workshop
TIS 4: Technology-related Course
TIS 5: Research Course

These are shorthand descriptions of broad areas. For example, 'Theoretical Linguistics' includes General, Descriptive, Comparative and Historical Linguistics.

The second digit indicates level of difficulty (100 for the first year of studies, 200 for the second year, etc.); the final two digits identify and group different courses and normally indicate continuity or order.

'C' marks compulsory courses and 'E' elective courses. For example, Lit6-260C indicates a compulsory English literature course (Lit6) for second year (-2) students. It belongs to a group of courses that relate to English literature and Culture at different periods of time and are numbered consecutively, i.e. 260, 261, etc.

Academic Terms

Teaching starts at the end of September / early October for the winter semester and in late February for the spring semester. Teaching is carried out in English. Each semester runs for 13 weeks of teaching and is followed by an exam period (in January-February and in June, respectively). There is a re-sit examination period (for both semesters) in September. See academic calendar at the end of this booklet.

Students are registered automatically for the first and second year courses. Students may customize their programme of study on the basis of the courses they select in the 3rd and 4th year of their studies. At the beginning of each semester students need to select their courses (from those available for their level) and register electronically at the School's website <<http://www.enl.auth.gr>>.

The level at which each student is placed is determined by the number of ECTS credits they have already accumulated, as indicated at the following table:

STUDENT PLACEMENT ACCORDING TO ACCUMULATED ECTS UNITS

2nd year	(3 rd & 4 th semester) from 50 up to at least 109 ECTS
3rd year	(5 th & 6 th semester) from 110 up to at least 169 ECTS
4th year	(7 th & 8 th semester) from 170 CU (170 ECTS) +

Coursebooks/Textbooks

Each student is entitled to free textbooks throughout his/her four years of study. The exact number of textbooks is determined by the relevant regulations and can not exceed the number of courses required for graduation. Information about textbook distribution points as well as special course requirements is announced during the course registration period.

Sign-off Procedure

Students may sign off a class within the first weeks in a semester (within specific deadlines). The student must inform all interested parties and make sure that their name is not included in any relevant lists. Needless to say, the student must return any textbooks they have received for this particular course.

Course Attendance and Assessment

Attendance is compulsory for all workshops and obviously it is advisable in all cases. Participation in exams is also required at the end of each semester (for most courses) and a re-sit exam is scheduled for September each year. The exact type of assessment may vary depending on the course and may involve written or oral exams, research papers or critical essays.

Assessment is generally based on formal written end-of-semester examinations; students failing an exam in February or June are given a second chance in September. Students who fail have to register for the course again (if compulsory) or opt for the same or another course (if elective). The method of assessment by mid-term exams and term papers is used in a number of courses; also a combination of the two methods is not unusual. The choice of method of assessment is specified in individual course outlines distributed at the beginning of each semester.

The grading scale used is 0-10, with 5 as the minimum passing grade.

Credit Accumulation and Graduation

Students may monitor the progress of their studies online. Students expecting to graduate at the end of an exam period need to notify the Registrar's office electronically. Graduation dates are set by the Dean's office and are announced on the School website.

Course Timetable

The teaching timetables for the winter and the spring semester are announced in September and January, respectively. Relevant information includes the names of tutors involved, the days and times of teaching and the rooms for each class. Exam dates are announced towards the end of each semester, as soon as this is possible.

Useful Services for Students

Anyone studying at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki may request the assistance of special university services in order to solve various problems they may face during their studies. They can also become themselves volunteers by offering their services to other colleagues or fellow students in need.

Social Policy Committee

For information regarding the activities of the Social Policy Committee, please contact the student advisors. The offices of the Committee are in the basement of the Administration building.

Social Policy and Health Committee

The Social Policy and Health Committee (SPHC) aims to create conditions that will make the University an accessible area to all members of the university community, by giving priority to space (and therefore knowledge) accessibility to disabled persons.

For this reason, qualified members of the teaching staff can train students with visual impairment to use electronic equipment linked with Braille printers installed in some of the University libraries. Also the SPHC, to its best, tries to ensure the granting of books with voice output to these students.

The SPHC also provided a bus disabled persons, in order to facilitate their movement in campus for classes and exams during the academic year. In this context the University has created a Program for the Promotion of Self-Help, which is basically run by a team of volunteers, the majority of whom are students. E-mail: selfhelp@auth.gr.

Many years ago the Social Policy and Health Committee established the institution of Voluntary Blood Donation, which also led to the creation of a Blood Bank in AHEPA hospital. Since May 2007, a second Blood Bank was founded too, in the Department of Physical Education in Serres with the collaboration of the Social Policy and Health Committee and the General Hospital of Serres. Voluntary blood donation takes place twice a year during the months of November and April, at the Ceremony Hall of Aristotle University. The immediate target is to cover all needs for blood through voluntary blood donation, which currently covers 40% of total needs. Volunteering for blood donation, which is a safe and without complications procedure, is open to every person above 18 years of age, who does not have special health problems.

The role of the Observatory is to assist:

- Students with disabilities
- Foreign students
- Minority students, foreign students of Greek descent or repatriate students
- As well as any other category of students who face problems hindering their studies.

The above mentioned students can inform directly the Observatory –and also inform the Student Advisors of their Department– of any serious problem that they might face in the course of their studies, which arise either because of their disability or because of cultural or language or health problems.

Counseling and Psychological Support Committee

The Counseling and Psychological Support Committee aims to the better organization and function of the university structures that offer psychological assistance and counseling to AUTH students.

The services provided by the University Center for Counseling and Psychological Support are offered to students and university staff alike.

The Committee works closely with other related Committees and organizes dialogue workshops with students, as well as with the administrative and other staff of the university community.

Among the future aims of ΚΕ.ΣΥ.ΨΥ. is the operation of a campus hotline, in order to provide immediate assistance to people in crisis and to those facing personal difficulties that could feel safer to talk about their problems in anonymity and in absence of visual contact.

ΚΕ.ΣΥ.ΨΥ. is located on the ground floor of the Lower University Student Club, in the Sanitary Service Section, offices 5 & 8.

With this aim, the Volunteer Committee having also as its motivation the improvement of the daily life of everyone working in Aristotle University –students and teaching and administrative staff– in areas such as student affairs, environmental issues and social aid, encourages all members of the university community to take initiative by submitting ideas and suggestions.

To this end, some Networks of Volunteers in Departments and Faculties have already been created, consisting of a faculty member and a student, in order to develop a body of volunteers in each Department/Faculty of AUTH.
